

This is not winning Ugle, this is style

Game of the week

UGLE BETIS 5 : 0

KINGS TOWN RAN

Out with the old, in with the new, or so the saying goes. Kings Town and Manager Wright have been a force to be reckoned with in the past, but all hail the new King (or something like that).

Ugle, and young Jack, have been brewing all season, tracking the wily Mansell and his eternal winners. This week they go level on points with a win that shows their calibre.

The home crowd were disappointed that Hammurabi had not returned to fitness, but next came news that the visitors sweeper Dunga was also crocked, so injuries were even.

Both teams played with a big midfield, but the lack of Dunga soon became apparent, when manager Wright decided to play Horstead in goal. To be honest, he may have well played a Horse head, as the poor fella had no chance, conceding 5 of the six shots on target!?

There may be an alternative plan for Wright and his Kings Town team, but he needs to be careful. Rushen are breathing down his neck, and relegation for Kings Town would be a disaster.

For Ugle, young Jack has a team that is going places! They trail Comp on goal difference, but they have a better defence, and they have better form? keep going Jack (and maybe mention this to Kev?)!!! (shouts everyone except Warwick and some hairy monster lurking in the corner)

On the up

Ugle most definitely. As stated above, they have the form, and if they have no injuries and a little luck they will give Comp a run for their money. Celtic are also up there, just one point behind. Like all good Ashcroft teams they lurk in the background, then pounce and hug the life out of you!? Watch out all.

A shout also to Hails and Rushen, a great draw with Comp and they are catching the pack in front of them.

Lack of acumen?

Kings Town as above, and they need to be careful. Chintz and Eastwood still flatter to deceive? such a waste of talent?

Interesting stats?

Only one team is in debt, but that is not good news in the outback. 4 teams have over 3 million in the banks, with one double that (2nd highest in the league, and appears to be related to the other rich manager!?)

Average wages is 98%, which shows there are some big spenders in the division. This probably explains that there is an average of 3 stars per team in div 1, which does seem a little unfair on the two teams that have none!?

Random numbers eh?

Up next (and the following session?)

The top three avoid each other. Comp have 2 games they can win, though Wadders may want to upset the Mansell applecart, Ugle have two home games, but one is against birthday boy Morten, who will be looking to make a statement ("Jeg er en god leder, aerligt!"), and the hairy one has two away games, neither of which are easy.

Is Mega Byte growing a Bush?

Game of the week

BUSH JUNIORS 2 : 2 MEGA-BYTE CITY

Some interesting games in the second, with Millwall breaking away from the pack into 2nd, Real forcing a draw away at Koningswulf, Gee Force sliding down the table like a cocktail in front of a holidaying Irishman, Tinsley slaying the other Irishman? but the revival of the Mighty Bush is probably the top match.

The Lutonite's Mega Byte (ooh that rhymes) have been the star of the show behind Lovely Lawton and his Fadey landlords. They have brushed with the top of the division, and still harbour promotion hopes, so this game would have been seen as a banker against Engsvlev side past their knitted best. Both teams used the KP formula and played a five man midfield, and with Valde Saadr in the home goal, manager Sutton was licking his lips and patting is head like a good un.

Stoichkov has always been a class player, and he was determined that this would be a good game, despite his managers attempt. After 5 mins he banged in a cracker, and manager Sutton stopped the head patting for 25 minutes. He was soon slapping away before half time though, as Snapdragon and then Riise broke the home defence, and a win looked on the books. In the second half Bush could not open up, and Mega looked sorted. Until Falck thought Fack it, took a pop, and bang, and equaliser. 2 goals from 2 shots, and the mighty Dennis could be no happier!

On the up

The Publicans push on, though it was not an easy win against Jens and lowly Cwmpalis. Long way to go to restore greatness, but Div 3 may be easier nest season for the scowling mogwai. Millwall take advantage on Mega Byte, Real, and Koningswulf drawing, and a great win for Tinsley as Meamus ScCrudden looks to track down Gee Whizz.

Lack of acumen?

Possibly Mega Byte, who really should have won their game. You'd say Clifton were safe, but 8 downwards are all in the mix for relegation. Even Cwm could come? up the table that is.

Interesting stats?

Again only one team in debt, which shows a lack of attendance at the Stevens institute of finance? Average bank balances are just shy of 1.5mill, with 5 teams above this. Wages are variable ranging from 135% (damn those Viking trade unions) to 70% (it's grim being managed by a Yorkshireman in Scotland!?). There are actually more stars in div2 than div1, with no team having none, and one team having 6 (hence the wages one supposes). He may be a fader, but he is now ranked second in the Dizzy? cucumbers all round.

Up next (and the game after for some reason?)

The Publican have a tricky session, away to Koningswulf, and then home to on fire Tinsley. Millwall have two away games, though against lower teams, whilst Mega Byte and Real meet, and then both play some Irish fellas. Getting close now to deciders.

Uh oh? there may be trouble ahead?

Game of the week

DEEPING DYNAMO 1 : 3 PADRAICINS

Div 3 mostly went with form, so it was not easy to pick a game of the week, but when Mr Spreadsheet topples Mr Brexit, one really does have to attend the match.

Deeping and their shy and retiring manager had declared that this writer wrote tosh (plonker was the exact expression), and they were the proclaimed champions elect. Fair enough we all thought in the press office, lets toodle down the M25 to fancy Swanley and see how those Deeping boys do things.

This week they had the visit of a the normally rumbunctious Padraicins crew, managed by a Jensen who makes his decisions after midnight, in the shower, having eaten raw polser. Padraicins used the usual KP approach of big midfield, and get those defenders forward. The shock for the home audience was that the home crowd favourite Ingersson was missing after chipping a toe nail, so the home manager went for a very defensive 4-4-2? ah the good old days were back! Jumpers for goal posts anyone?

Bi Bi Turmpie (is he a right winger?) started the scoring, though unfortunately the wrong way? all a conspiracy of course, and then two more goals by the half hour meant this was all over. The second half was as interesting as an evening trimming Brutus' back hair (electric gardening shears are required), and though Filip did get one back, Padraicins won easily.

A blip Mr Dempsey?

KICKABOUT NEWS

On the up

Padraicins of course, moving into second, whilst Croydon and Perth take advantage of Deepings misdemeanour.

Lack of acumen?

Not really anyone, as even Deeping had mitigating circumstances. Sao Paulo have really been on the move as their manager has threatened anyone not playing well with an evening in on the sofa with himself, but looking at the table any team from 2-9 could get promoted (come on Gareth!!! Do the miracle!!)

Interesting stats?

Now we see proper financial acumen, with 4 teams in debt, two of them esteemed professors from the above Stevens institute of commerce. Two teams have cash aplenty, and both are supposedly unmanaged?

No naughty boys when it comes to discipline. Southend have a bangin crowd for division 3 at 38k, and have twice the followers of 6 of the other teams, which means they have more supporters at their grounds than the home teams? The worst wage percentage in the league is in here, so we now know why he doesn't often buy rounds, whilst 8 teams are less than 100%... luckily food is cheap in St Helens Lidl. All have at least one star, with the average over 2, and the most being 5!

Up next

Deeping travel round the M25 to south London, so they have a chance to wipe the grin of this authors face, whilst Sao Paulo play Portsmouth, and Padraicins play Perth. What a cracking division.

Bounding like a pool tournament winner (pending)

Game of the week

BOUNDARY PARK 5 : 3 WEST DIAMONDS

Many would have said that the top of the table clash should have been the match of the week, but when two KA stalwarts (as in old fellas who have played this game for too long!?) go head to head, and 8 goals are scored, you really cannot ignore it.

Both teams are what you might call challenged, and both managers have picked these teams up to try to revive their fortunes. Boundary were dire, and needed some tender loving care, something only a Ronford public servant could offer. West Diamonds were probably worse, and they received the tender touch of a Celtic pussy lover.

The away team went with the KP formula, and this looked to be the best option with an early goal from Dobrinouiu, but nothing stops an Essex 5 man front line, all dressed in white socks and black patent loafers (no soft footy boots ere mate!). Four quick goals in 14 minutes after the half time break destroyed West, and though they gamely fought back, Boundary were always in charge.

It takes Boundary to a whopping 29 points, and 6 points off promotion? do they really want that?

On the up

To be fair on the above, both Boundary and West Diamonds look revived. The big movers were Inter Annealing with a convincing win over Thesps that probably secures their promotion. Shout out to QPR under KP, who obviously is taking advice from the QPR supporters group and their member Mr. I. Cranfield!?

Lack of acumen?

One would question Pandemic, vying for promotion, but drawing with the worst team in the league?

Interesting stats?

Two teams in debt, but both are flying in the league, so may be looking to gain the riches (?) of division 3 to support their bank balance? Elsewhere finances range from £500k to £7 million, the richest team in the league. Two teams have no DPs yet, whilst another has an amazing 156? bet they are good matches to go to? No crowd is above 20k, but then only one team has over 100% wages, so it evens out financially. There is an average of over 2 stars per team, with one team having 5, and 5 having 1. All teams have a star.

Up next

Inter Annealing host Boundary, which should indicate the season endings for both. Pandemic face QPR which could be a decider for the promotion spots

UP FOR THE CUP

SEMI-FINALS

Parking the bus almost worked

Q.P.R.

KINGS TOWN RAN

Given the gulf in ability and status of these two teams, the resultant scoreline can only give credit to promotion chasing QPR and their manager KP. Using every defensive trick in the book (and KP wrote the manual!), QPR stifled Kings Town, restricting them to just 3 chances. Unfortunately, Portiere in goal is definitely div 4 level, and he could not cope with Hans' effort just before the hour. It also shows the respect that manager Wight had for QPR and big Kev, as he marked zonally in an attempt to keep the Kings season alive.

A final Mr Wright, but a tough one!

A hairs breadth away? (or may be a lot of hairs breadth?)

CELTIC NEVADA 0 : 2 COMP CITY

A tough draw for Mr Ashcroft, facing the best team in the league (now and for ever?). The wily St Helenian was also without one of his key midfielders, suffering from furballs, so the task was nigh on impossible. Comp played with assurance and style, bossing the middle of the park and possession, and creating a string of chances in the first half, but Sereni was excellent. In the second half Nevada came good, and were so close to scoring a couple of times. It was heart breaking when finally Sereni was beaten, with two quick goals within a minute! Brutus out, and once again Mansell finds a way!

BOWLING ALONG

SEMI-FINALS

Oooh?nearly worked

SAO PAULO 0 : 0 MILLWALL FC

Another semi for Brutus (match that is, not?), and this time a close one. Sao Paulo have been on the down since the Cooncilla left for fairer shores, but Mr Ashcroft has made them fighting fit, and this was a test to show their mettle. Sao Paulo marked the superior team, and they created chances, more than their superior opponents, but none would hit the back of the net. A replay, and maybe more attacking from Millwall will seal the deal.

Oooh? this nearly worked too!

REAL ROYALS 0 : 0 VINTAGE CLARETS

Again a lower team vs a bigger team, this time div 2 vs div 1. Both teams went for a 4 man midfield, both marked, but then there were differences. Mr McAuley went full defensive, playing defensively with a sweeper in tow. Big Bad tomato Bo went all out, as Real often do, and they were the only team creating chances. Not totally sure which way this will go in the replay, but this writer kinda hopes for two under dogs in the final (but which two are they?)

TROPHY TRAILS HIGHLIGHTS

The GM gets revenge on the Viking as Deeping prove they are the best team in the world by getting to the trophy quarters

An all writer tie that sees the 4th division side show their true potential, and Thesps go through Colly mullers Ashburton as Oli does not make full use of the home advantage. Cliton on the rise!

Easy for Jens and Padraicins against unmanaged Gehanna

No shots from either side?, so instead of a shoot out the two teams play bingo, and Neptune go through on a full house.

Great win for Perth as Stevens again shows his cup pedigree

An amazing game at Koningswulf, as Sao Paulo come from behind (very Brutus) and clinch an extra time win? what a ride Sao Paulo are on!

Amazing win for QPR and Southend rue the missing Bast

TROPHY QUARTER-FINAL DRAW

Match 1 : QPR vs PERTH CITY

Match 2 : DEEPING DYNAMO vs CLIFTON MAGIC

Match 3 : NEPTUNE KNIGHTS vs THESPS FC

Match 4 : SAO PAULO vs PADRAICINS

Cracking draw. My tips would be Perth (Fingers to do one over KP), Deeping (though Colly always surprises), Neptune (need some ball winning Mr Napier), and Sao Paulo (surely Jens wouldn't spoil the party!?!?!?)

(To be played on session fourteen (extra time and penalties to decide))

AUCTION HIGHLIGHTS

Big money spent by Millwall on the riser add, and decent cash on the fader removal from Sao Paulo that puts them in debt (but may sort next season)

Some interesting transfers as teams jostle both for rejuvenation next season, and for potential promotion. Inter Annealing do a deal that probably suits both, and Gee Force bring in some cash to try to support the purchase of a decent defender

ROLLING AUCTION LEVELS

The following are the minimum levels relating to each session for entering players into the rolling auction:-

SESSIONS	MIN LEVEL
1 to 3	5
4 to 5	6
6 to 8	7
9 to 10	8
11+	9

These are also the same levels which decide whether a player will go straight to N/L when out of contract rather than being put into the auction

Please note that from now onwards it is illegal to sell any player and then buy him back in the next three session FOR ANY REASON WHATSOEVER. If you do that playing will be banned for life and you will lose him

KICKABOUT BITS

MARKING

From now onwards if you use last season's marking numbers then you will be found out AND if guilty the result of the game will either be reversed or decided against you.

MARKING INFO - Tim Dodge has put together a clever little program that allowss shomatch subscribers to gather all the international squads together each session so that you can use that info to get marking info. Shomatch/ teampick subscribers get a file sent out a file with all the int squads listed and this program pulls them all together. Makes it easier than ploughing through back newsletters, etc

The latest version now available at

<https://dodge.me.uk/markinfo.exe>

PLEASE NOTE THAT UNLESS YOU
SUBSCRIBE TO TEAMPICK/SHOMATCH
THEN YOUR TEAMSHEETS WILL ALWAYS BE SENT OUT BY POST. EMAIL TURNS ARE ONLY SENT TO TEAMPICK/ SHOMATCH

SOMETHING FOR EVERYBODY TO REMEMBER

It seems that even old stagers of the game still can't work out what order games are to be played in. SO emblazon the following on your minds please

ORDER OF MATCHES IS

LEAGUE GAME ONE

LEAGUE GAME TWO (which is where any re-arranged league maxcth should go)

ALL CUP GAMES (including Cup/Bowl/ Trophy where the latter is always last if you have a Bowl or cup game as well)

LEAGUE CUP GAMES

EURO GAMES

FRIENDLIES

(If you look at teampick you will see that you CAN edit your fixtures as well to tell the program what games you are playing this session and it will put them in the correct order, OK)

NB In teampick trophy games come after League Cup it appears. Please realise that they don't. In the fullness of time the teampick maestro will change this

MUTTERINGS AND MEANDERINGS OF THE KA MIND

I have to repeat this now and again, why? It is the managers responsibility to get his orders in by the stated deadline. I try to send out reminders for those who haven't done this, if I have the time. But sometimes I don't . It should be easy enough to keep a record of deadlines or consult the Despatch Schedule. Rather than blaming me, which does not compute

KICKABOUT MONEY

STANDING ORDER PAYMENTS - you can also pay your turn fees by standing order now. Contact us for details about how to do this and remember that this is not only the way to spread your payments over the year rather than having to find a lump sum at the start of every season, but it is also the way to avoid those dreaded double turn fees. With SO payments this can't happen.

CREDIT CARD PAYMENTS Can be made to us using the PAYPAL service. So if you want to pay anything by credit card then you could register with them and give it a try. Also note that if you send your payments as a gift ALL of the cash reaches us without any paypal fees being charged at our end and all is credited to your account. You can use either email address for this

BULK PAYMENT OF TURN FEES - remember if you pay £63.75 at one time (which can cover more than one team) you get an extra free turn credited to your account. This offer does not include shomatch/weekend/fast leagues/veterans leagues or special offers monies!

FUN

FORTHCOMING KA WEEKENDS

After an amazingly fun and successful weekend in Glasgow minds have turned to the future. Unfortunately, the dastardly Seamus has pulled the rug out from under us by selling his place for millions of filthy lucre so we won't be able to sue the amazing Padraiscins again. Boo Boo!!

However a hardy few would still like to go to Galway and use the same system we have successfully used in both Norwich & Glasgow of late. I.E. hiring a big house to sue as the venue for our gaming extravaganza

The following hardy souls (or should I say the ones who want to enjoy life with like-minded nerds have elected to go so far. Cranners(Paid), Seamus(Paid), Gareth(Paid) , Rob Lewis(Paid), Gerard, Craigins(Paid), Nigel the Smith(Paid), Jens baby, Dennis (Paid) , Colly(Paid), Tim Dodge (Paid), Steadders & Baddad(Paid)

AND PERHAPS EVEN BUTTERS (Obviously not, Boo!)

Galway 2024 10th-13th October

Spring 2025 Back To Norwich

Tommo McTomface, Geraldo, Jens & Seamus Are First Dogs In dates 9th-11th of May

Craig is happy to plan another Glasgow weekend in October 2025
dates 9th-12th October

And Bo has offered to host us all at his place in Odense during the spring of 2026

Kickabout will be forty years old in 2027, so perhaps somewhere special could be planned for then?

KA becomes 40 years old in 2027, perhaps something special to be arranged?

CONTRACTS UPDATE

We have listened to the moaners who in contract negotiations have lost very good players cos they cannot get them to agree to a new contract. Galling to see their prized possession in the expired section of the autumn. Ok you will no doubt get some recompense for him, but the reserve bid is always painfully low and you never never know who might snaffle his arse with a cheeky bid do you.

So from now onwards if your prized player is on the last week of his contract

AND THIS ONLY RELATES TO THE LAST WEEK OF HIS CONTRACT PLEASE NOTE

Then there is a wage that if offered he will ALWAYS accept.

This has to be calculated by you (Oh shite!!)

The formula is as follows :

3 X basic wage where the basic wage = player level X PS Bonus X Div Bonus X POS Bonus X Type bonus player level is obvious

P/S bonus increase the basic wage by 20%

Div Bonus - 125% for div 1/ 110% for div2 / 100% for divs 3/ 75% for div 4

Pos bonus refers to STARS/FUT/SBY which require 50% uplift

Type bonus is equal to the players expected wage rates , ie MF/A/D x3 - DF/A X 2 /

UT/WG/FWS x1.5 / GK SW X 2/ FW/MF/DF X 1

We suggest that you always add 1K to your bids

AND THIS ONLY RELATES TO THE LAST WEEK OF HIS CONTRACT PLEASE NOTE

as an example a DIV ONE 20/12 PS MF/A/D STAR would require a wage offer of basic wage (81K) X 3 to accept unconditionally , i.e. 243K per week or a 20-10 DIV THREE S DF/A would require a wage offer of basic wage(20K) X 3, i.e. 60K

On the last week of the contract there is no optimum length of contract though we suggest you opt for four weeks so you have time to bid again

I REPEAT - AND THIS ONLY RELATES TO THE LAST WEEK OF HIS CONTRACT PLEASE NOTE

One last change to note as well. In future at whatever stage of the contract negotiation you are at with a player, the min he will now accept is one third of his basic wage

· so in the MF/A/D example a bid under 27K will be rejected, the DF/A minimum is 6.66K

The Shakespeare League

The Shokie is ncie league whcih ahsn't really got a supert team, so competiitve indeed. However, for soem reason it has been leaking players and now is in the position that it needs a fresh infusion of new blood. I have a fix for this and that is to inject some 36-1 clubs into divison four.

Suggestion is the nornal set up in terms of ground/ sps etc

But starting cash would be 1000K

ten random 36-1 players

one 19-12 outfield player (not gk or sw) (managers choice)

one unqual sby of 6.5 qual (random outfield)

one 18-2 FUT (manager chooses position)

No promotion or relegation at end of first season

Certain parts of each auction would be just for div 4 managers

First season free, second season £20

If interested let us know, sugegstions about th set-up warmly received
