

BUSTED FLUSH BRUTUS

As the season draws to a close Dakin take the title yet again but in truth it was all over bar the shouting (& the hugging). Dakin would need to have seriously faltered in their last three league matches to leave the door slightly ajar for Carlisle & their Boss Brutus Ashcroft. This wasn't going to happen.

As Dakin wrapped things up with two wins from two, Carlisle could only snuble (stumble) to a single point as they capitulated in true Brutus fashion. Having been in second spot up until recently, this leaves them in a disappointing fourth spot going into their final game. I will now be unable to use the 'Bridesmaid' moniker for finishing in second spot when the Albino Ape lands in the Emerald Isle for the Galway KA weekend in early October. What's fourth then? Flower girl? Christ, the mental image. A dungball in a dress.

Raith have moved into second place having had a fantastic season. A win at home against Vasey in their last game will secure a superb finish. Take a bow Scotty & enjoy the limelight.

Neptunes under manager Hails are also having a great finish to their season & they will certainly give Dakin a serious run for their money next year. Dark horses for the title for sure, next time out.

The relegation spots are all confirmed too with Leicester, Belvoir & Woolwich all looking to rebuild in a lower tier next season. Belvoir are still looking for a fulltime incumbent for their hot seat although Shaymoose has been caretaking them to date. They have plenty of talent & could bounce straight back up again. Not so sure about Leicester as a season of consolidation is needed. Wadders is back too (as if anyone hadn't noticed or heard) & his Woolwich outfit are a work in progress for our Johnny Crash Cockney wide boy.

KKS stay up having brought in the experienced Kevin Presland to keep them in this division. Job done but the fans will expect progress next season. It remains to be seen whether KP can shake off the fire fighter tag & lead the team up the table. A bit of a Warnock/ Big Sam hybrid is our Kevin. So Gareth tells me.

BREAKING NEWS Royston Vasey have decided to part ways with their experienced manager Jens Jensen after a very disappointing season to date. Languishing in mid table after so much was expected preseason, rumours abounded that Jensen had lost the dressing room. It all finally came to a head as fans began protesting outside the ground waving Gremlin dolls? Weirdos.

The Vasey board acted quickly & are now on the lookout for a new manager, BOD FF manager Ian Cranfield is being considered for the position, as is Ten Haag from Man Utd as he looks a bit like Jensy but nothing has been agreed as yet.

PISTOL PETE BACK IN THE BIG TIME

Peterbro are confirmed promoted in a very tight finish to the top of the second division promotion race. The other two spots have yet to be filled but Durnovaria & Romford are certainly in the driving seat. If they both secure wins in their final games then Baker Street will miss out, no matter what they do in their game away to Bravehearts.

Peterbro have a final away day at already relegated Jellies so the party can start in earnest once they achieve at least a point, as this will confirm them as second division champions.

Durnovaria & Romford managed by Ian Read & Neil 'Bring back Moyesy' Barrett, face off against Celtic Warriors & Bolton respectively. You could see two away victories here, but with Bad Daddy in the mix one would never know. As a crazy hammers fan, match fixing & underhand tactics are second nature to such unscrupulous characters in the KA world.

So potentially a Baker Street win is on the cards & promotion to boot with the Romford Shit Squad to miss out?

Down at the bottom Bravehearts could upset the party above as they have home advantage & a chance to stay up. They only need a win or draw against Baker

KICKABOUT NEWS

Street & then for Whoventus, who are away to the Kamikaze Foxes, to pick up less points than them. Goal difference is currently on par but Bravehearts have scored more goals so they would stay up if it comes down to such fine margins.

The Jellies & Bolton are already heading down to rebuild & create a firm base for stability. Manager Samson down Bolton way will steady the ship while the Jellies are currently rudderless but with some cracking players in their ranks including three stars & three specialists, one of which one is an 18 year old all purpose.

Roll up, roll up who wants the job? Rob Lewis, you can put your hand down please.

MARVEL'S FISHY FINGERS GOING SWIMMINGLY

Top trumps for the top three as Northwich, Mirus Marvels & Moscow are all promoted. Colly's Finn Harps have dipped of late with some erratic results that has seen them just out of the promotion race this term. Next year for sure, me old hairy sausage.

Northwich with quite a remarkable season achieved their promotion this session with a four point haul.

A superb, creative attacking side with hints of the glory days down at White Hart Lane (GM _ erm, when was this?) as Paul Fingers Stevens attempts to mimic the playing style of his hero Big Ange Postecoglou of the Hotspurs.

Morten Jensen was doing the backstroke in his new swimming pool to celebrate the promotion of the Moscow. Balancing the champagne bottle on his chest while doing so was nearly as problematic as juggling the life of being a football manager & an International pop star. The sun always shines on M.J? Or was it T.V?

Marvels are a decent outfit too although Manager Hudson seems to have disappeared since 'No Way Sis' announced that they are reforming, with being totally skint & ripping off their fans higher on the agenda than the Gallagher Brothers hatred for each other. Best defence in the bag here with only four goals conceded all season so far. Another promising job here for any budding manager?

Rob Lewis, please put the phone down.

At the other end of the table, Reigate, SPG Derby & Ironopolis sink down to the bottom division. Butler, Sutton & Butler the unfortunates here, sounding like some dodgy law firm from an American 80's TV show, will be joining the worst managers in KA history currently awash with the likes of Loser Lawton, Mediocre Mansell & the Tomato lover of Odense.

It all makes for an entertaining fourth division next term.

WELLHAM ARE CHAMPIGNONS!

Good old Bo Gregerson has proved that his skills as a football manager far outweigh his language skills. Champions with a fantastic season & current ten-point lead. Wowsers!

Bo, with French nor English not being his first language, was proudly sporting a t-shirt this weekend which translated as 'Wellham are Mushrooms!' & it isn't Big Bad Bo's first faux pas. Presenting himself with a teeny tiny trophy (which he bought for himself), ordering a half of a tomato & paying two quid for it on a recent visit to Glasgow & we certainly won't mention the time he invited Shaymouse into his daughter's bed. Oh no Bo!

In truth though, there wasn't a dry eye in the house as the former Churchill 1st division champions finally turn things around & make their way slowly back to the glory days of yesteryear. Step by step amigo.

The other two promotion spots are still in the mix with everyone all the way down to Stockport Devils still in the hunt.

An added extra headache is the fact that Elvet & Stockport have a rearranged game to sort in the last session so it's impossible to call. If I was a betting man I'd have a tenner on Nob Lewis fucking it up, but that's just me.

Young Jackie bhoys of Newark & Hugo Allen's Midland are also in with a shot, Newark have home advantage though in their last game as Midland have to travel to Rivendell. Who knows what will happen, exciting times down amongst the dead men.

Looking at the bottom of the arse end of the Churchill league, well let's just say that there are some well-known dingleberries clinging on to life as managers. In particular Warwick & Cranfield, W.C, how appropriate.

KICKABOUT NEWS

Both the clubs of Bod & Beddgelert need a good flushing out. Cranners tells me he's regular, delivering his 'parcels' three times a day. Way too much info my taxi loving friend.

TROPHY TRAILS

SEMI-FINALS

LOZZA LOVIN IT

BEDDGELERT UTD 0 : 2 BAKER STREET FC

A valiant effort by Warwick & his 4th division outfit today whose gameplan to take this one to penalties almost paid off. Lozza's Baker street, a top second division outfit surprisingly struggled to get their game into any kind of flow but that was mostly due to the stubborn sweeper 342 applied by the opposition.

Lozza looked a bit worried at the final whistle as extra time loomed but two goals by Rostropovich & Rathbone would settle this one. Baker Street in the final but tough luck on Manager Mansell who has had a great trophy run this season.

ALWAYS SOMETHING UP LAWTON'S SLEEVE

STOCKPORT DEVS 1 : 0 BRAVEHEARTS FC

Our good friend the magician Craig Lawton, he of the large sleeved Duffle coat, always manages to produce something when the time calls, from the depths of that Raspberry Ruffle. Today it was a 'hey presto' one nil victory. Tomorrow it could be an 'Abrakebabra' with a chilli doner, cucumber & a six pack of Hazy Jane. Cranners still maintains that they're his tinnie's & also mutters gypsy, bastard & thieving under his breath but I have no idea what he's on about, the caaaant).

Rob Scott, the leather clad Braveheart's Blue Oyster manager, knew that today's tight encounter (nearly as tight as those leather pants) wasn't going his way after going a goal down early doors. When a red card for Fuentes came for a two footed lunge late on, our back door loving chum knew it had put paid to his dreams of getting to a first final of his KA career. One nil & lights out.

Can Lawton produce some magic in the final now against Lozza's Beach Boys to take the trophy?

Should be a good contest for sure.

GOLDEN BOOT RACE

It's Carlos Stifez by a landslide even though he is recovering from a season ending injury. Dakin's hitman continues to score the goals that leads to 1st division titles.

Joachim of the Foxes has the second wrapped up while Northwich have it sorted in the third barring a miracle. Wellham's San Martino & Czizeor also have their shooting boots on to top the basement division scoring charts.

MEANEST DEFENCES

Dakin, W.B.A & Neptunes are all vying for this accolade & a free rejuvenation of an oldest sweeper or defender in the top tier.

St Andrews, Durnovaria & Peterbro are all in the hunt here. Saints are just about edging it though.

The third division has Mirus Marvels away & clear, best defence guaranteed while Midland should have it all tied up in the fourth, barring some crazy shit going down away to Rivendell in their final game. Concentrate Hugo, it's only a bunch of men in tights!

Shomatch/ teampick subscribers get a file sent out a file with all the int squads listed and this program pulls them all together. Makes it easier than ploughing through back newsletters, etc

SOMETHING FOR EVERYBODY TO REMEMBER

It seems that even old stagers of the game still can't work out what order games are to be played in. SO emblazon the following on your minds please

ORDER OF MATCHES IS

LEAGUE GAME ONE

LEAGUE GAME TWO (which is where any re-arranged league maxcth should go)

ALL CUP GAMES (including Cup/Bowl/ Trophy where the latter is always last if you have a Bowl or cup game as well)

LEAGUE CUP GAMES

EURO GAMES

FRIENDLIES

(If you look at teampick you will see that you CAN edit your fixtures as well to tell the program what games you are playing this session and it will put them in the correct order, OK)

NB In teampick trophy games come after League Cup it appears. Please realise that they don't. In the fullness of time the teampick maestro will change this

MUTTERINGS AND MEANDERINGS OF THE KA MIND

There has been chat about the usefulness of the FWS player type. Some don't seem to realise his attributes. Personally I would always have a FWS in my side. Why. Well if he gets a shot then it has more chance of beating the opposing keeper than does any other player type. He also acts like a star in gaining you extra shots at times. Finally he can play in any position without loss of levels and without notably losing his effectiveness. Personally I always play him in midfield, especially if he is a star. Hoping that somebody will play offside which will double his leathaliity. FWS are king

Newton, the come back kings, former winners but in the doldrums since their last triumph, see off the Shakespeare to lift the trophy once again. Stars will abound for them no doubt. Congrats to Mr Cranfield, showing acumen with an unbeaten but close season to pip current champs the Ramsey.

Down go the Wellington, slipped badly from second spot last season. A win in their final games was far, far too late to save them.

Mr Hails had already won division two and promotion for the Raleigh Four seasons since they were at the top of the pile. But at the bottom the Churchill go to the Nelson to get a goalless draw which keeps them up and sends down the Nelsoners.

Only needed a win for the Jackson, and they duly got it to leapfrog over the Livingstone and gain promotion. They did well with only one home game and finally get out of division three after a long sojourn there Mr Engslav Is The Man

CONTRACTS UPDATE

We have listened to the moaners who in contract negotiations have lost very good players cos they cannot get them to agree to a new contract. Galling to see their prized possession in the expired section of the autumn. Ok you will no doubt get some recompense for him, but the reserve bid is always painfully low and you never never know who might snaffle his arse with a cheeky bid do you.

So from now onwards if your prized player is on the last week of his contract

AND THIS ONLY RELATES TO THE LAST WEEK OF HIS CONTRACT PLEASE NOTE

Then there is a wage that if offered he will ALWAYS accept.

This has to be calculated by you (Oh shite!!)

The formula is as follows :

3 X basic wage where the basic wage = player level X PS Bonus X Div Bonus X POS Bonus X Type bonus player level is obvious

P/S bonus increase the basic wage by 20%

Div Bonus - 125% for div 1/ 110% for div2 / 100% for divs 3/ 75% for div 4

Pos bonus refers to STARS/FUT/SBY which require 50% uplift

Type bonus is equal to the players expected wage rates , ie MF/A/D x3 - Df/A X 2 / UT/WG/FWS x1.5 / GK SW X 2/ FW/MF/DF X 1

AND THIS ONLY RELATES TO THE LAST WEEK OF HIS CONTRACT PLEASE NOTE

as an example a DIV ONE 20/12 PS MF/A/D STAR would require a wage offer of OVER basic wage (81K) X 3 to accept unconditionally , i.e. 243K+ per week or a 20-10 DIV THREE S DF/A would require a wage offer of OVER basic wage(20K) X 3, i.e. 60K+

On the last week of the contract there is no optimum length of contract though we suggest you opt for four weeks so you have time to bid again

I REPEAT - AND THIS ONLY RELATES TO THE LAST WEEK OF HIS CONTRACT PLEASE NOTE

One last change to note as well. In future at whatever stage of the contract negotiation you are at with a player, the min he will now accept is one third of his basic wage

so in the MF/A/D example a bid under 27K+ will be rejected, the DF/A minimum is 6.66K+

STARTING OUT TIPS

If you are lucky you may have a couple of million in the Bank but that won't be enough to turn things around in a couple of sessions. You need to be committed to be in this for the long haul.

?Have a plan. Base your coaching on getting 2 SPS per session. If you get a few more along the way as the season progresses then great either cash them or coach an extra youth player. Aim to coach your APP's & SBY's to level 12's by seasons end. Better to have 3 17/18 yr old level 12's than 5 level 8's.

?Clear out the 24-4's etc. to get them off the wage bill as they will be on relatively high wages. Either sell them to other managers at below NL price (you will still benefit vs selling to NL due to wages). If you can't get a buyer then hold on to them and run their contract down before selling to NL by session 10 _ sales to NL go to half price after that.

?Play 2 APPS or a SBY every game unless you have a realistic chance of winning but try to win your derby games. Keep your MP's for derby games, matches against fellow strugglers and for (hopefully) a bit of a run in the Bowl.

?Build up your cash balance. Keep building this until you have at least circa £8m. Try to pick up bargains (below NL value) from the auction so you can then sell them on at a profit.

?Invest money in youth. Don't rely on this producing multiple MF specialists, unless your name is Morten. What you will hopefully get is a few FUT's which you can coach at 0.5 SP per level or sell for cash. This is a good way of increasing your teams' skill level quickly.

?Choose a category for the team and aim to get all the players of the same category (P, S or P/S). Having a power team is easier to build up quickly as there are more of them, there are plenty of 95 BW's around and are cheap to buy. However, longer term you will need to change the category of them team as power teams don't become super teams.

?If you have players that don't match your chosen category look to trade them for another player who is. It is rare your team will be full of P/S players so if you have any it may be best to move them on to build up your cash balance or trade for another player.

?Look to get a good quality GK and SW. You may not win many matches but two level 12's at the back could bring in some extra SP's through 0-0 draws.

?Don't coach anyone over the age of 18 unless there is a really good reason to do so e.g. 23-10 MF specialist.

?You need a captain so you can afford one player over the age of 19 _ hopefully your captain will star or get rejuvenated.

?Within 2 seasons you should have a team full of level 12's and a decent cash balance as a solid platform to start your ascent to being the next KA super team.

Good luck!
